

This document was first created by Ava Fails on December 1, 2019 for the Self-Publishing Books Facebook Group.

Last Updated: 1/3/2023

Back in June of 2019, I created a post in the Self Publishing Books Facebook Group asking for service providers to share their info, so we could create a document. That way authors and publishers in this group would have a go-to resource. This is that document.

You may see some repeat information because some providers perform multiple services. Self Publishing Books, its Admins and Moderators, Dale L. Roberts, Ava Fails, and the Self-Publishing with Dale brand do not endorse and are not responsible for your interactions or transactions with the providers listed below.

In 2023, this document is being moved from Facebook Notes which are a legacy feature, to Google Docs. With this move, we can share this with more members of the community and have more providers listed.

If you'd like to be added to this document, please contact Ava at ava@selfpublishingwithdale.com.
